

The floating home community of Sausalito abounds with unique and exciting residences, and 16 Yellow Ferry stands out as one of the most unique and exciting. The home is structured with two separate units, a main living space and a second unit connected to the main unit and located a few steps away. Situated on a newly renovated and premiere dock, this two bedroom, 2.5 bath home is designed with many architectural details and an open floor plan in the main unit, which includes kitchen, living, dining and powder rooms.

Steel trusses highlight a clerestory that allows natural light to bring in warmth. Expansive views of Mt. Tam and Richardson Bay Yacht Harbor lead to an open water corridor with access to the Bay, perfect for kayaking and paddle boarding. The lower level of the main house has a designated office, one bedroom, a full bath and storage. The second unit consist of a large master suite, complete with spa tub and laundry facility. A wrap-around deck and floating dock boasts of casual outdoor entertaining and several different sitting venues. Easy public transportation and just minutes away by auto to San Francisco.
